One hour in each week is assigned to special devotional exercises and practical instruction, attended by the Faculty, and all the members of the School.

Students unable to provide themselves with the books above named, may, to a limited extent, obtain them from the Library of the Institution.

Comparatively few text books are needed; as the instruction is mostly given by lectures, of which the students are required to take copious notes.

OF ADMISSION.

Every person producing to the Faculty satisfactory evidence of his having been admitted a Candidate for Holy Orders, with full qualifications, according to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, may be received as a student in the Divinity School. Any other person may be admitted who shall produce satisfactory evidence of moral and religious character; of literary attainments; and, in general, of such disposition and habits as may render him apt and meet to exercise the ministry, and to be a suitable companion for young men preparing for the same.

To be admitted a member of the Middle or Senior Class, or of the Junior Class after the month of September, a person must undergo a satisfactory examination in the studies which have been pursued by the class for which he proposes. Persons so desiring may be admitted to a partial course.

No student can pass from a lower to a higher Class except upon a satisfactory examination.

OF THE LIBRARY.

The Library contains about 6,000 volumes, including many of the most valuable Theological works, to which the Students have access daily.

OF VACATIONS AND EXAMINATIONS.

The year is divided into three terms: the first beginning on the third Thursday in September, and ending on the 24th day of December, when there is a suspension of study until the next day after the Feast of the Epiphany. The second term ends on the Friday next before the sixth Sunday in Lent, when there is a recess until the Wednesday after Easter. The third term continues until the Thursday after the third Tuesday in June.

The recitations and lectures are omitted on Ash-Wednesday, and on all days of thanksgiving or fasting appointed by the ecclesiastical or civil authority.

Before the Christmas and Easter vacations there are reviews and examinations, at the discretion of the Faculty.

At the end of the year there is a public examination of the several classes upon all the studies of the year.

The Annual Commencement takes place on the Thursday after the third Tuesday in June; when after Divine Service, testimonials are conferred, and there are such exercises on the part of the students as may be designated by the Faculty.

OF EXPENSES.

Board, including fuel and light, is furnished at present, either in Divinity Hall (which can accommodate about twenty-four students) or in the neighborhood, at $4.50 per week.

There is no charge for tuition or room-rent.

Young men requiring pecuniary assistance to enable them to prosecute their studies in theology, may make application to the Dean of the Faculty.

The friends of theological education are invited to endow Scholarships for the School. Each Scholarship requires for its foundation $5,000. Several such have already been founded.

SOCIETIES.

There are two societies among the students: the "James May Missionary Society," and the "Potter Rhetorical Society."

The object of the Missionary Society is to obtain and communicate information on the subject of Missions, and to foster a Missionary spirit among its members and the students generally. It holds its meetings on the first Thursday of each month.

The purpose of the Rhetorical Society is sufficiently indicated by its name.

BUILDINGS.

The buildings at present owned by the Institution are known as Divinity Hall and Spencer Hall. The former is the residence of the Matron and of a considerable number of the students. The front parlor in this building is appropriated as a Reading Room, and an office for the Dean.

Spencer Hall contains the Library of the Divinity School, and the Chapel for the religious services held with the students. The Library is also used as a Lecture and Recitation Room by the Professor of Biblical Learning and the Chapel is employed for a like purpose by the other Professors, it being divisible into two rooms by sliding doors.

Several Students preparing to enter the Divinity School receive instruction at present from the Rev. John G. Furey, under the direction of the Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, in the studies included in the Literary qualifications, Title I, Canon 4, Section II, of the Digest. The Course begins about September 15th and closes in June,

PRAYERS

WHICH MAY BE USED AT THE ANNUAL MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATE ALUMNI OF THE

PHILADELPHIA DIVINITY SCHOOL.

Set forth by the Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

FOR THE CLERGY.

O Lord our God, though we are not worthy that Thou shouldst come under our roof; yet Thou hast honored Thy servants with appointing them to stand in Thy House, and to serve at Thy Holy Altar. To Thee and to Thy service do we devote ourselves, soul, body, and spirit, with all their powers and faculties. Fill our memories with the words of Thy Law; enlighten our understandings with illumination of the Holy Ghost; and may all the wishes and desires of our wills centre in what Thou hast commanded. And, to make us instrumental in promoting the salvation of the people committed to our charge, grant that we may faithfully administer Thy Holy Sacraments, and by our life and doctrine set forth Thy true and lively Word. Be ever with us in the performance of all the duties of our ministry; in prayer, to quicken our devotion; in praises, to heighten our love and gratitude; and in preaching, to give a readiness of thought and expression, suitable to the clearness and excellency of Thy holy Word. Grant this for the sake of Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Saviour. Amen.

FOR THE PEOPLE.

O God, Holy Ghost, Sanctifier of the Faithful, visit, we pray Thee, the several congregations in which Thy servants are, or may be, appointed to minister, with Thy love and favor; enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the everlasting Gospel; graft in their hearts a love of the truth; increase in them true religion; nourish them with all goodness; and of Thy great mercy keep them in the same, O blessed Spirit, whom, with the Father and the Son together, we worship and glorify as one God, world without end. Amen.

FOR AN INCREASE OF THE MINISTRY, AND FOR THE INSTITUTION.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who of Thine infinite love hast given Thine only Son, Jesus Christ, to die on the cross for the redemption of the world, we pray Thee to send forth more laborers into Thy harvest. Stir up many faithful men to seek the office and ministry appointed for the salvation of mankind. Sanctify their hearts; enlighten their minds; guide and prosper them in their studies; train them in Thy heavenly nurture, and give them the abundance of Thy grace that they may become able ministers of Christ. And to this end bless, we beseech Thee, the Institution with which we have been connected. Give to it all needed means for carrying on its great design. Grant that all its Teachers may be endued with heavenly wisdom in the discharge of their several duties; enable the Students therein to be diligent in the pursuit of sacred knowledge, and submissive to lawful authority, and that they may ever remember the great work for which they are being prepared.

Grant us Thy favor and blessing in working together for the increase of the Ministry of Thy Holy Church, and bring our labors to good effect. Breathe into our hearts a love of this sacred cause; bless all who aid us by their prayers and offerings, and grant that both we and they may strive with one mind for Thy glory and the salvation of men, that so the bounds of Thy blessed kingdom may be enlarged, till at length the whole of Thy dispersed sheep, being gathered into One Fold, shall become partakers of everlasting life, by the merits and death of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.
